Aladdin Table lamp

Shaped like one of the famed vessels that would bring any inheritor good fortune, the Aladdin Table Lamp doesn't have a genie hidden inside but it has a bewitching charm. Made of luminous blue glass, the lamp will reflect illumination whether the lights are turn on or not. Accentuated with metal details in an antique brass finish, the blue table lamp is fitted with a bone linen drum shade. The contemporized amphora shape (sans handles) illustrates how historical profiles can look seriously modern
